using colourful and detailed case material street level democracy introduces a new method of researching everyday politics it is a wide ranging book that traces the conflicts between global power and local action people in farming communities town mosques city markets and fishing communities suffer the effects of wrenching change but live far from the centres of power from britain and small town usa to nigeria india and nicaragua citizens everywhere grapple with the politics of everyday life a human then a building now a rising stock follows the authors harrowing journey marked by the devastating loss of his older brother is a testament to the far reaching consequences of tragedy and perceived injustice as he struggled to come to terms with his grief the author found himself consumed by hurt and anger repeatedly confronting the individual held responsible for his brother s death the toxic cycle of emotions led him down a destructive path marked by addiction and criminal behavior however with the support of others the author was able to regain control of his life transforming his negative outlook into a positive one through his experiences he learned that even in the face of overwhelming challenges it is possible to overcome them forgiveness and moving forward seemed like an impossible task without justice and closure this harrowing experience has left an indelible mark on my life
